KLEZMER IN THE PARK 2009

For the first time ever, seven of Britain's most famous klezmer bands will perform on one stage – on Sunday 6 September from 1.00pm to 6.00pm – illuminating the variety of klezmer music today from its centuries old Jewish roots to links with contemporary jazz, Latin, gypsy and world music.

'Klezmer' is the name given to vibrant and soulful music played for Jewish weddings and parties across large swathes of Eastern Europe in times past. It is enjoying a world-wide revival and is now one of the most popular genres in world music, reaching well beyond its Jewish origins.

The Mayor of London is joining with a wide range of Jewish organisations and the Royal Parks, to present London's largest public celebration of British Jewish Musical Culture – connecting London's diverse Jewish communities to the life of this great multi-cultural city.

"It's great to see 'Simcha on the Square' re-emerging as 'Klezmer in the Park' this year".

London Assembly Member, Nicky Gavron

DAVE SCHNEIDER – COMPERE

Dave Schneider researched a PhD in Yiddish drama at Oxford before coming to prominence as a writer, actor and comedian in award winning TV comedy shows such as I'm Alan Partridge, Knowing Me Knowing You, The Day Today. He has written and appeared in plays, films, and numerous TV and radio programmes.

LUCIE SKEAPING AND THE BURNING BUSH

Since the early 90s Lucie's ensemble perform foot-tapping klezmer, Hassidic melodies and Judeo-Spanish ballads on a plethora of traditional instruments with breathtaking virtuosity. 'An absolute joy - grace, passion and virtuosity' Glasgow Herald

STEWART CURTIS' K-GROOVE

Formed in the mid 90s K-Groove plays Klezmer blended with modern jazz. Winners of the JC klezmer Idol in 2007. 'A jittery band who attacked their numbers like Greek-taverna entertainers on hallucinogenic hummus'

Evening Standard

SHIR

Formed in 1997 by Maurice Chernick, Shir, meaning 'song' in Hebrew, plays Klezmer, Israeli, Yiddish and Sephardi instrumental and vocal music, providing an energetic, soulful musical experience for any Simcha – Jewish party. 'The difference between a good Simcha and a great Simcha is Shir!!!'

GREGORY SCHECHTER'S KLEZMER BAND

Established in 1991, Britain's first Klezmer band retain their Russian intensity.

'Schechter's clarinet conveyed the full gamut of human emotion, sometimes melancholic and sobbing, at other times uplifting as it picked up the giddy tempi of Yiddish dances'.

The Times

MOISHE'S BAGEL

Formed in Edinburgh in 2003, Moishe's Bagel, comprising some of Scotland's best instrumentalists, combines the energy and passion of Eastern European folk music with the excitement and soul of improvisation. 'exhilarating, full-flavoured stuff, often breath-takingly intricate but played with jubilation' The Herald

MERLIN SHEPHERD QUARTET

Internationally acclaimed clarinetist Merlin Shepherd and his new quartet, explore with original repertoire the music of Jewish Eastern Europe, Greece and Turkey. 'He colours and shapes every phrase... providing spiritual and emotional heart'

London Evening Standard

SHE'KOYOKH

Established in 2001, the award-winning klezmer ensemble, of eight musicians in this well knit group 'have plainly got rhythm in their bones, and all displayed an amazing ability to characterise the music by enhancing the normal range of their instruments'. Oxford Times

HOPKELE!

Ilana and Guy lead Yiddish circle and line dances. No experience necessary. 'They got the crowd going'

The Jewish Chronicle

3½ CENTURIES OF BRITISH JEWISH LIFE

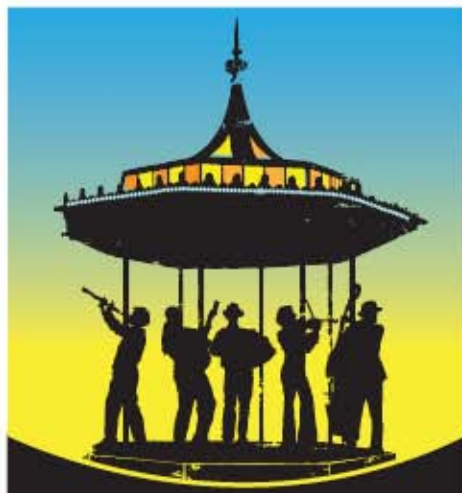

See the Jewish Museum exhibition which explores how one of Britain's oldest minorities met the challenges of maintaining its distinctive religion and identity while playing an active role in society.
