What is JMI?

JMI is the driving force for Jewish music in the UK. Based at SOAS, University of London, JMI provides resources for study, research, training and performance in Jewish music at all levels. It deals with Jewish music in all its diversity from home to synagogue and wedding canopy to concert stage – down the centuries and across the globe. It is a platform for new creativity from an ancient tradition and brings Jewish music into mainstream British culture. JMI has a clear mission to preserve and develop the Jewish musical heritage for the benefit of present and future generations.
