

KlezNorth 2010

Klezmer on a Shoestring

A Weekend of Klezmer in the Peak District
Fri 19th, Sat 20th, Sun 21st March 2010
at

Youlgrave Village Hall, Derbyshire

in association with the Jewish Music Institute SOAS University of London.

The weekend will contain instrumental workshops, dance workshops and sessions, jam sessions, Yiddish song workshops and opportunities to learn about the historical context of Klezmer music. Workshops will be led by Ros Hawley, Judith Plowman, Sue Cooper, Phil Tomlinson, Adrian Dobson and other Northern Klezmerim. Youlgrave is also a charming village, offering opportunities for delightful walks in the immediate area.

Accommodation for the weekend can be as 'indoor camping' on the floor of the hall itself; bring a sleeping bag and mat. The Hall is a pleasant modern building with a shower. There is a Youth Hostel about 200 yards away. Most of the pubs in Youlgrave do bed and breakfast. There are holiday cottages in the village which can be rented for the weekend. The internet is a good source of information about these. There is also a campsite for the hardy.

Food: We will provide a basic breakfast for those who choose to 'indoor camp' in the Village Hall. We will also provide evening meals on Friday evening, and a special three course Jewish meal on Saturday evening (motsei shabbat), as well as drinks and biscuits during the day. All food will be vegetarian. We ask you to bring a vegetarian dish to share for Saturday / Sunday lunchtimes. You may also choose to bring alcohol and other goodies.

Cost: There are two rates for the weekend.

A £23 WEEKEND TICKET WITHOUT ACCOMMODATION for those organising their own accommodation. This will cover: Hall rental, workshops, two evening meals, daytime drinks, Saturday evening concert and ceilidh.

A £35 WEEKEND TICKET WITH ACCOMMODATION for those sleeping in the Village Hall. This will cover: Indoor Camping, Hall rental, workshops, 2 breakfasts, 2 evening meals, daytime drinks, Saturday evening concert and ceilidh. There will also be the option of a £6 Saturday Evening Ticket (£12 with meal) if you want to invite friends along to join us for the Saturday Concert and Ceilidh.

Booking: We ask you to book places well in advance, so that we know how many people we will be catering for. Places will have to be limited. We will send you further information nearer the event about the programme once we have received your booking. Payment can be made on arrival at the weekend. Please complete the form below / attached.
