Yiddish Song Summer School

Sunday 12 – Friday 17 August 2007 at WLS

Runs parallel to and interacts with KlezFest

Professional and 'just for leisure' vocalists will receive world-class guidance on the repertoire, interpretation, pronunciation and accompaniment of the vast range of expressive Yiddish song. Workshops and masterclasses with separate sessions for those who want to work at a faster pace will be led by world-acclaimed Yiddish singers, Shura Lipovsky (Holland) together with Lorin Sklamberg (USA) and singer, vocal ensemble director, composer and accompanist Polina Shepherd (UK via Former Soviet Union). Accompanists and instrumentalists who perform with singers will be welcome at this course.

I met fabulous people and spent quality time in structured and unstructured settings. Plus it was FUN FUN FUN! There is no higher compliment than it 'fed my soul'.

Ot Azoy! Yiddish Crash Course

Sunday 19 – Friday 24 August 2007 at SOAS

Here's a chance to begin reading Yiddish and opening the doors to a great culture. In just one week you'll find yourself starting to speak and even to dream in this rich language. Whether a complete beginner or already an advanced Yiddish student, Ot Azoy! as well as being hugely enjoyable, will give you the tools to start and also to progress rapidly.

Our specially chosen popular teachers

Peysakh Fisman (USA), Sonia Pinkusowitz (Belgium), Heather Valencia (Scotland) and Lily Kahn (UK) led by Khaye Beer (University College London) will help you learn, not only with superb language tuition, but also through song, film, conversation classes and drama workshops. Book early. (daily 9.30am – 6.30pm)
